

Euston Manifesto Conference

'Solidarity and Rights: The Euston Manifesto one year on'

Wednesday May 30th

Conference Programme

14.00 - 15.00: Norman Geras, University of Manchester, 'Deficits of International Law'

15.00 - 15.30: Break

15.30 - 16.30: Shalom Lappin, King's College London, 'Multiculturalism and Democracy'

16.30 - 17.00: Break

17.00 - 18.00: Fred Halliday, London School of Economics, 'Solidarities Simple and Complex'

18.00 - 19.00: Break for dinner

19.00 - 20.00: Eve Garrard, Keele University, 'The Academic Boycott: Justifications, Objections, Explanations'

20.00 - 20.15: Break

20.15 - 21.30: Michael Walzer, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, 'Terrorism and Just War'

Khalili Lecture Theatre, SOAS, Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London WC1H 0XG

The conference is organised by The Euston Manifesto Group and hosted by the SOAS Centre for Jewish Studies. Presentations will be followed by chaired discussions with the audience.

Tickets: £5.50 (plus donation at your discretion)

Booking your ticket:

For tickets email: conference@eustonmanifesto.org

(if you do not have Internet access then please call: 07967 02629)

For media enquiries only call: 07974599962

www.eustonmanifesto.org